

Target Market Determination

Skerryvore Global Emerging Markets All-Cap Equity Fund

This document aims to outline the fund’s target market, ensuring consumers are receiving products likely to align with their expected objectives, financial situation and needs.

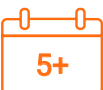

Background

This Target Market Determination (TMD) is required under section 994B of the Corporations Act 2001 (Cth) (the Act). It sets out the class of consumers for whom the product, including its key attributes, would likely be consistent with their objectives, financial situation and needs. In addition, the TMD outlines the triggers to review the target market and certain other information. It forms part of Bennelong Funds Management Ltd’s design and distribution arrangements for the product.

This document is not a Product Disclosure Statement (PDS) and is not a summary of the product features or terms of the product. This document does not take into account any person’s individual objectives, financial situation or needs. Persons interested in acquiring this product should carefully read the fund’s PDS before making a decision whether to buy this product.

At a glance

The Skerryvore Global Emerging Markets All-Cap Equity Fund is likely to be appropriate for a consumer seeking capital growth, to be used as a small allocation within a portfolio where the consumer has a long investment timeframe and high risk/return profile and may need daily access to capital.

Investment objective	Intended product use	Investment timeframe	Risk/return profile	Access to withdraw
 Capital growth	 Satellite/small allocation (<25%)	 Medium (≤ 6 years) to Long (> 6 years)	 Very high/high	 Daily

This product is unlikely to be appropriate for a consumer seeking regular income or with a low risk/return profile.

A more detailed assessment of the fund’s consumer attributes can be found on the following page.

Description of target market

This part is required under section 994B(5)(b) of the Act.

TMD indicator key

The consumer attributes for which the product is likely to be appropriate have been assessed using a red/amber/green rating methodology:

- In target market
- Potentially in target market
- Not considered in target market

Instructions

In the table below, 'Consumer attributes' indicates a description of the likely objectives, financial situation and needs of the class of consumers that are considering this product. 'TMD indicator' indicates whether a customer meeting the relevant attribute is likely to be in the target market for this product.

Generally, a consumer is unlikely to be in the target market for the product if:

- one or more of their Consumer attributes correspond to a ● red rating, or
- three or more of their Consumer attributes correspond to an ● amber rating.

Investment products and diversification

A consumer (or class of consumer) may intend to hold a product as part of a diversified portfolio (typically with an intended product use of satellite/small allocation or core component). In such circumstances, the product should be assessed against the consumer's attributes for the relevant portion of the portfolio, rather than the consumer's portfolio as a whole. For example, a consumer may seek to construct a conservative portfolio with a satellite/small allocation to growth assets. In this case, it may be likely that a product with a high or very high risk/return profile is consistent with the consumer's objectives for that allocation, notwithstanding that the risk/return profile of the consumer as a whole is low or medium. In making this assessment, distributors should consider all features of a product (including its key attributes).

TMD indicator	Consumer attributes	Product description (including key attributes)
Consumer's investment objective
●	Capital growth	This product's objective is to achieve long-term capital growth through investing in companies operating in, or exposed to, emerging markets.
●	Capital preservation	This product is not suitable for consumers seeking capital preservation. While this product will pay its distributable income each year, there is no guarantee any income will be generated.
●	Capital guaranteed
●	Regular income
Consumer's intended product use
●	Solution/standalone (75 -100%)	This product invests primarily in global listed emerging markets securities.
●	Core component (25 -75%)	The portfolio comprises a minimum 90% allocation to equities and 10% to cash. It typically holds between 40–80 stocks.
●	Satellite/small allocation (<25%)
Consumer's investment timeframe
●	Short (≤ 2 years)	The minimum suggested timeframe for holding investments in this product is 5 years.
●	Medium (≤ 6 years)
●	Long (> 6 years)
Consumer's risk (ability to bear loss) and return profile
●	Very high	This product is suitable for investors with a high risk tolerance who are seeking capital appreciation over the long term. This product focuses on absolute returns, not relative, and risk is defined as the permanent loss of capital rather than performance versus a benchmark.
●	High
●	Medium	This product's benchmark is the MSCI Emerging Markets Index.
●	Low

TMD indicator	Consumer attributes	Product description (including key attributes)
Consumer's need to withdraw money
●	Daily	Under normal circumstances, unit holders can withdraw monies from this product daily. Withdrawal requests must be received before 2.00 p.m. Melbourne time on a Business Day.
●	Weekly
●	Monthly
●	Quarterly
●	Annually or longer
